

Judicial Magistrates, Public Prosecutors sensitised on animal laws

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hubballi

IN collaboration with NAL-SAR Animal Law Centre, Humane Society International/India sensitised over 40 judicial magistrates and public prosecutors of Hubballi-Dharwad districts.

The one-day workshop focused on custody and seizure provisions, case studies and overview of Animal welfare in Karnataka and state animal welfare laws related to Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1960 and Wildlife Protection

N G Jayasimha, Managing Director HSI addresses judicial magistrates at a workshop held in Hubballi on Monday | EXPRESS

Act, 1972.

The training was conducted by N G Jayasimha, Managing Director HSI/India and campaign managers Sumanth Madhav and Shreya Paropkari, who are both from Humane Society International/India. Jayasimha said the workshop has been engaging and the magistrates and the public prosecutors have both been very positive about it."

Speaking on the occasion, Principle and Sessions Judge Justice Eshappa Bhute said, "I appreciate the efforts from Humane Society International for sensitising our officers on animal laws. This has enriched knowledge for our officers, and also will help us while addressing animal cases".